

FREEDOM IS A CONSTANT STRUGGLE

- Angela Davis

The South's Attack on Voting Rights

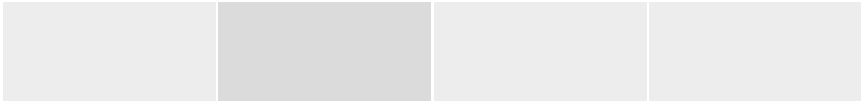

Washington D.C., 1963

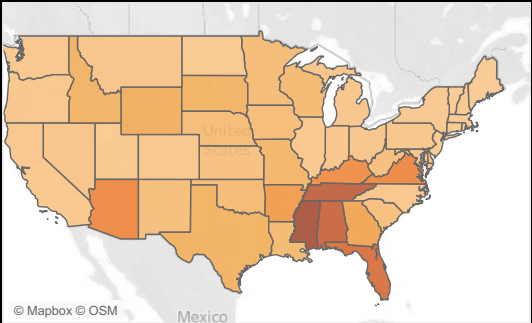

Fort Lauderdale FL, 2020

Story 1

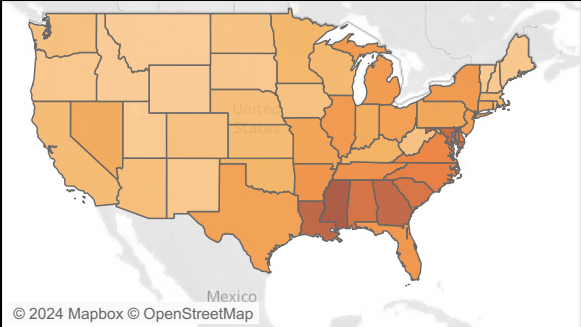

Disenfranchised Population %

The South has the majority of the Black population as well as some of the most restrictive voter disenfranchisement laws

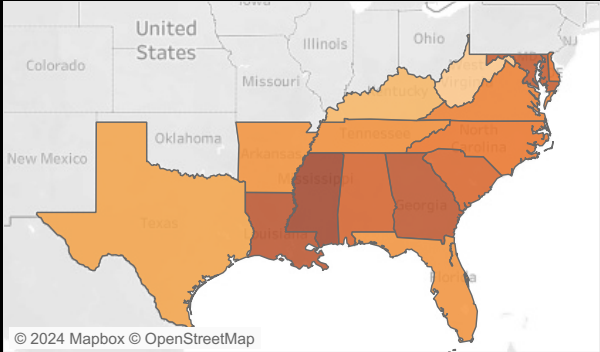

Black Population %

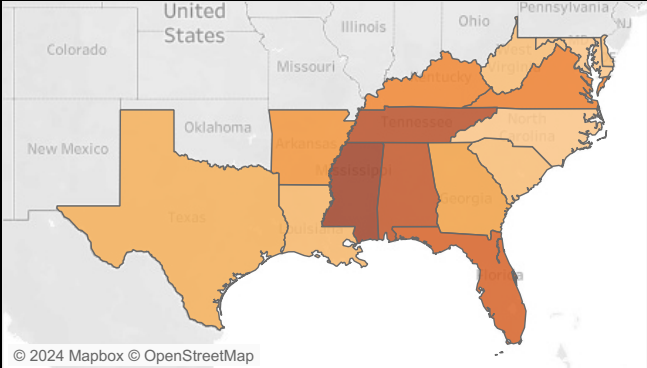

Story 1

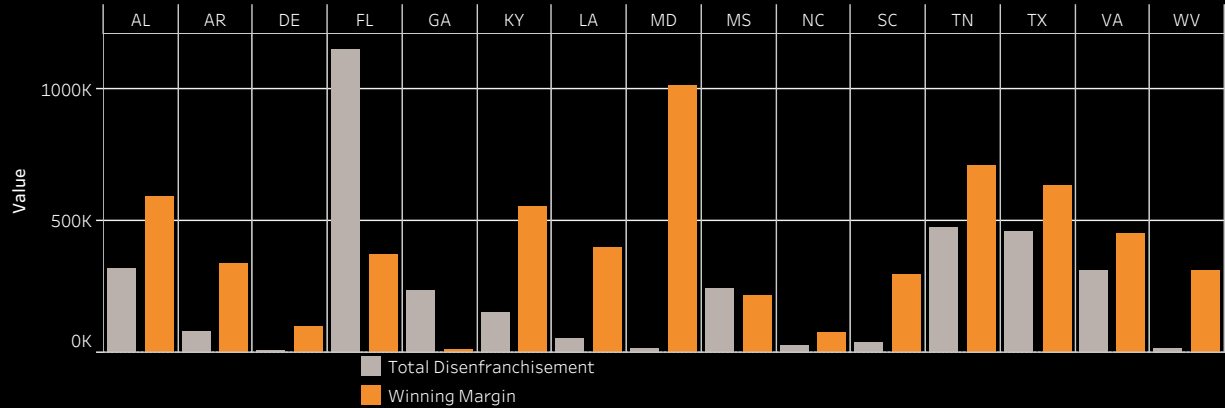

Black Population %

Disenfranchised Population %

Disenfranchised Population & 2020 Winning Margin

Voter disenfranchisement restrictions have real world consequences. In the 2020 presidential election, Georgia, Mississippi, and Florida had a higher disenfranchised population than the winning margin, with other southern

Story 1

Mass incarceration and the disenfranchisement of those incarcerated takes away necessary rights from millions of Black people

The mass incarceration of Black people and the war on drugs targeting Black people must end in addition to all citizens being enfranchised. Black people being able to completely be heard in the polls is just one of the first steps in the fight for social justice